

Universiteit Leiden
CampusDenHaag.nl

Introductory Conference
Diversification and Fragmentation of International Criminal Law

Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies

Thursday 23 October 2008, 16:00 to 21:00 hrs

Programme

16:00-16:15

Welcome

16:15-17:00

Opening keynote: Fragmentation and diversity in International Criminal Law

Judge F. Lattanzi, ICTY

17:00-17:20

Break

17:20-18:40

Panel 1: International Criminal Law as a specialist domain of law

Fragmentation and diversification of sources and applicable law
G. Bitti, ICC

Relationship between International Criminal Law and International Humanitarian Law

L. Blazeby, International Committee of the Red Cross

Relationship between International Criminal Law and Human Rights Law

C. Martin, Washington College of Law

18:40-19:20

Diner

19:20-20:20

Panel 2: Substantive fragmentation and diversification within International Criminal Law

Implementation of the Rome Statute and legal fragmentation
C. Hall, Amnesty International (t.b.c.)

Implementation of modes of liability in domestic legal systems
E. van Sliedregt, Free University of Amsterdam

Implementation issues in the first situations before the ICC
B. Burke-White, University of Pennsylvania

20:20-21:00

Reception

Venue: Campus The Hague, Lange Houtstraat 5-7, 2511 CV The Hague.

Room: auditorium, 4th Floor. Registration fee: € 25,- (professionals); € 20,- (students and interns), including drinks and a light meal.

Please register at grotiuscentre@campusdenhaag.nl